

LITERACY GRANTS

UP TO $2,500 EACH • APRIL 1, 2012 DEADLINE

WWW.PHIKAPPAPHI.ORG/LITERACY

ABOUT LITERACY GRANTS

As part of Phi Kappa Phi's mission "to engage the community of scholars in service to others," grants of up to $2,500 are available to champion literacy initiatives.

HOW TO APPLY

Go to PhiKappaPhi.org/Literacy to access an online application and review submission instructions.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The definition of literacy should be considered broadly.

Proposals may be for new projects or for support of existing projects. Project directors must reapply each year to receive funding, and they must be active Society members.

Target groups may include preschool children to adults.

Budget can only be used for supplies and materials, publicity, postage, etc. No salaries or stipends included.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to campus chapters and active individual members for projects relating to literacy.

Members should feel free to consider literacy either as a basic skill to be taught to those in need or as a set of expanded skills including math, computers, and more.

Chapters or individual members may consider either starting a literacy project on campus or in the community or contributing in some way to an existing literacy project.

Duration of the project may be either a short-term, one-time activity or a longer ongoing series of activities. Please refer to the Literacy Grant application for suggestions on the range of possibilities that may be considered.

DEADLINE

Submit your completed application to Phi Kappa Phi headquarters no later than April 1, 2012 at 11:59 p.m. CT.

Winners will be announced by June 1, 2012.
