GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE.

JIM TRESSEL has led the Ohio State Buckeyes to the 2002 national championship as well as six Big Ten Conference titles. Under his leadership, the Buckeyes have appeared in bowl games in each of his nine seasons. His squads have garnered the most Academic All-Big Ten honorees in each of his years at the university. Previously, Tressel spent 15 seasons as the head coach at Youngstown State University, guiding the Penguins to four Division I-AA national championships. Tressel was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi at Youngstown State University in 1997.

Founded in 1897, PHI KAPPA PHI is the oldest and most selective honor society for all academic disciplines. Its more than 100,000 active members include great minds in science and medicine, government and law and the military, education and business, along with sports, literature and the arts and just about every other field imaginable.
