

MY WORK: President of The Ohio State University

MY STARTING POINT: Ohio State is not merely important; it is indispensable

MY APPROACH: be a student of our students

MY HONOR SOCIETY: Phi Kappa Phi

GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE.

E. GORDON GEE, one of the most experienced administrators in higher education in the nation, served as president of five schools – West Virginia University, University of Colorado, The Ohio State University, Brown University, and Vanderbilt University – before beginning a second tenure as leader of Ohio State in 2007. Time magazine named him the best college president in the country in 2009. He also has coauthored eight books and worked for U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren E. Burger. Gee was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi at West Virginia University in 1982.

Founded in 1897, PHI KAPPA PHI is the oldest and most selective honor society for all academic disciplines. Its more than 100,000 active members include great minds in science and medicine, government and law and the military, education and business, along with sports, literature and the arts and just about every other field imaginable.
