GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE.

TERESA A. SULLIVAN, PH.D. is the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Michigan. She is also Professor of Sociology in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts. In August 2010, Sullivan will become the first female president of the University of Virginia.

Sullivan was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi at Michigan State University in 1970 and was awarded a Phi Kappa Phi Fellowship in 1971; she currently serves as treasurer of the chapter at the University of Michigan.

Founded in 1897, PHI KAPPA PHI is the oldest and most selective honor society for all academic disciplines. Its more than 100,000 active members include great minds in science and medicine, government and law and the military, education and business, along with sports, literature and the arts and just about every other field imaginable.
